

NATURE FINANCE COUNCIL MEETING 2

CHAIR'S SUMMARY

1 March 2024

On Friday, 1 March 2024, the Nature Finance Council met at the Treasury office in Sydney. The Council's Chair welcomed the Hon Tanya Plibersek MP, Minister for Environment and Water and members.

The Council discussed a vision to shift private finance to support a nature positive economy, taking into account policies and initiatives associated with advancing this vision.

Members of the Council tabled options for initial consideration that included possibilities to leverage existing initiatives, programs and emerging reforms. The discussion also focussed on the importance of shifting culture and building capability across private sector groups, and ways the Council could support change.

The next Council meeting will be held in May 2024.
